

October is anti-bullying month

Plan events to build awareness.

Post the mnemonic found in the Courage Bucket on every unit and in every classroom.

Choose one item from the Buckets to focus on during the month such as designing a dashboard, reciting the civility pledge, initiating code words, committing to a language of collaboration, or preparing staff and students to have respectful conversations when confronted with incivility or bullying.

BE AWARE....and Care

